DEDICATION . . .

TO one whose smiling personality and inspirational guidance we shall remember through the years, we dedicate this 1941 KALEIDOSCOPE . . .
To Joseph Dowell Burroughs—sincere, friendly, humorous, helpful, efficient, admired by students and colleagues—we are grateful for his enthusiasm in behalf of our yearbook.

FOREWORD . . .

THE Class of 1941 herewith presents a kaleidoscopic album of personalities and events which we hope may be a pleasant means of recalling the many enjoyable activities of our youth. May this 1941 KALEIDOSCOPE, while reminding us of the freedom of our youth, also inspire us to keep brightly aglow the flame of liberty and equality which events of our time have taught us to cherish dearly.

"Let Freedom Ring"

Harken . . . A sound comes from the hills,
Echoing the notes as a bugle trills;
The echoes of Liberty bravely bring
Voices crying, "Let Freedom Ring!"

From cotton fields to inland ports
You'll hear our people's proud retorts,
O'er all the land you'll hear them sing,
Those cheerful voices, "Let Freedom Ring!"

O God, may they ever keep their cheer!
May they never have any cause for fear!
May the echo of Liberty forever bring
Voices crying, "Let Freedom Ring!"

—GENEVIEVE RENN.

Destiny

O Time! O Customs! Dark is our destined course.
They on the Isles fight on and on bravely
Against man-made destruction from the skies
That comes like a swarm of locusts on a field
Of man-nurtured green that soon is reduced to dust,
Just as the abodes of those courageous ones.
What will the outcome be of this revolt
Against free men crushed by machine warfare?
The days to come shall see that end to come.

The Class Of 1941

A PERSONAL MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1941

I consider the theme "Freedom" an especially appropriate one for a graduating class at this time. You are confronted with a more serious challenge of many of our traditional freedoms than any previous generation has had to face. These freedoms were won for you by the effort and sacrifice of your forefathers, and it is your duty and privilege to maintain them. They can be maintained only as they were won—by effort and sacrifice. There can be no real freedom without self-discipline.

President Roosevelt has said that the aim of the democracies of the world is the establishment of four freedoms for all peoples. These are basic freedoms; but as young men and young women just setting out to fashion your lives, you are probably looking for freedom of a somewhat more personal nature. I wish for you four freedoms which, if you pursue them with zeal, should bring to you some of those satisfactions that make life worth living.

The first of these is the freedom to play. The old adage "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is true of adults. In your highly mechanized world the worthy use of leisure time becomes a major problem. Your recreation should be as carefully planned as your work, and it will be satisfying to you only in proportion to the thought and effort you devote to it. Begin now to develop your hobby. You will be free to enjoy it only as you use it.

The next is the freedom to work. This means not merely the means of earning a living but the opportunity to make a contribution to society. It is your task to discover the field of work in which your training and ability can best be used by society. In the recent past great numbers of young people of your age did not enjoy this freedom. This is a challenge to you to win this freedom for yourselves and transmit it to those who come after you.

Then there is the freedom to make a home. I fear that we value this freedom too lightly. The perpetuation of society is dependent on it, yet it requires intelligent effort to maintain this freedom also. You should devote your most serious thought to the making of your home and to maintaining in it high standards of social living. There are many freedoms within the home that should be jealously guarded—your freedom and the freedoms of the other members. Self-discipline is the only guarantee of this freedom.

Finally I wish for you the freedom to think and to give expression to your thoughts. These must go together, for we soon cease to do much thinking unless we express our thoughts. The cure for the ills of a troubled world must come through your carefully tested thinking and that of thousands of others like you. You must make your contribution to man's long struggle toward the realization of truth. The Great Teacher said, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free," but we cannot know the truth unless we seek it.

These freedoms which I wish for you involve responsibilities on your part. This is true of everything in life that is worthwhile. I hope that as you face the future you may welcome these responsibilities and thus achieve all those freedoms which bring the satisfaction of a useful life.

—J. E. MALLONEE.

Parting Thoughts

In the midst of our preparation for graduation
We pause to consider the past and then the future:
The days that are gone were filled with expectation
Of one day when the fruits of our dreams would mature.
That day we realize our ignorance,
Our weak ability to cope with life;
Yet we look ahead and aspire to advance
In this ancient world of struggle and of strife.
In our struggle with life we shall each win a prize—
The prize, it may be large or it may be small—
Some of us will fall never to rise,
And yet others will rise above it all.
To Alma Mater, "Goodbye," with regret we now say.
But our sorrow's soon gone and we face the future day.

—ELIZABETH MARKS.

(EDITOR'S NOTE:—This sonnet was selected as the 1941 Class Poem.)

Students of democracy . . . . .

To Betty I wish the best of success and much happiness.

You are one swell
girl whom I have admired very much.

As ever

LET FREEDOM RING

Freedom, intended to be the birthright of every man, has been almost entirely obliterated from Europe and the rest of the world. There is no freedom because war has filled the air with shrieking bombs and falling shrapnel. The waters are infested with submarines and mines. On the land deadly war machinery is slowly wiping out all traces of civilization.

Out of the chaos and destruction of a war-mad world, there is one place where freedom still reigns—that place is America. Can she stand against the odds of a world torn with violence and hatred? Will her people who have always walked hand-in-hand with freedom fall victim to the bonds of slavery and dictatorship?

These are grave problems facing America today, but the people know the answer—that America will stand as long as the people have faith in her. Freedom will reign, for deep from the heart of every American comes a fervent prayer—a prayer handed down by the men who dared to sail the seas and to wrench from a wilderness the foundation of a great nation. A simple prayer, but one so powerful that since the birth of America, it has been on the lips of the oldest man and the tiniest child—"Let freedom ring! Let freedom ring!"

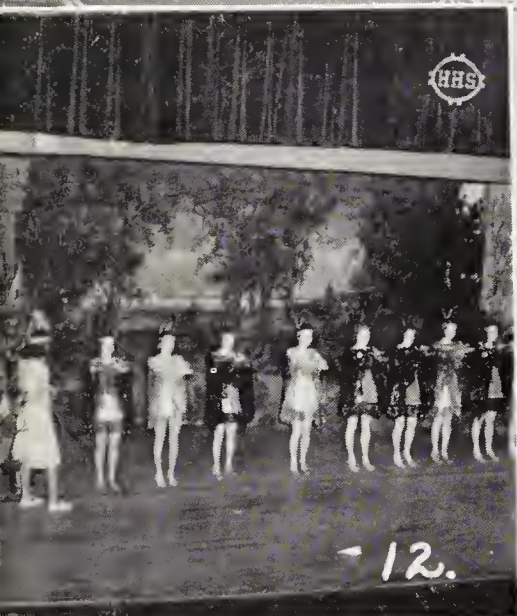

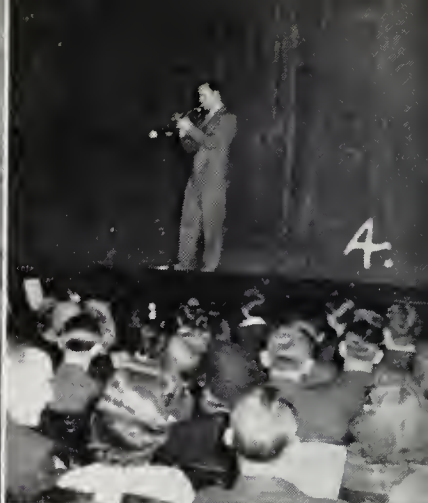

—HAZEL LOWDER.

ALMA MATER SONG

In the heart of Hopewell city,
Wonderful for you,
Is our dear old Alma Mater
Of the Gold and Blue.
Open your hearts
To hear her praises,
And you'll never fail.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hopewell High School, hail!

In its three years of steady development under the capable direction of Miss Marcia LeGrand, the Hopewell High School A Capella Choir has at last achieved undisputable parity with the best high school mixed voice groups in the state. At the State Music Festival in Richmond on April 4, the Hopewell A Capella Choir was rated "Superior"—the highest rating given.

OUR FAITHFUL BENCH-WARMERS

Our Blue Devils

A SOUND MIND IN A SOUND BODY

The maximum development of physical health and capacity, so essential to the attainment of truly full living, is by no means the only purpose of athletics in our high school life.

Indeed, there are other goals, perhaps higher goals—aims which are closely interlaced with our highest ideals of strong moral character. What are these goals? In a brief enumeration we find good sportsmanship in success . . . courage in defeat . . . fair play and determination in all our dealings in life; the development and exhibition of a fine spirit of cooperation and teamwork wherever united efforts are required; the building of deep loyalties—loyalty to school, to team, to friends; the tying of wholesome bonds of friendship and brotherhood such as we see fostered in the gymnasium and on the athletic field; the building of self-confidence and self-respect without sacrificing modesty—these are the values which Alma Mater desires greatest to realize in her athletes.

To Head Coach Leslie Parson, to his fine staff of assistants, and to Coach Polly Temple, all of us who have known them will long be grateful for their great work in promoting the highest virtues of American character.

Beckwith, Guthrie, Parson, Glass, Temple

RESUME

Ten lettermen and forty other eager gridiron aspirants answered the call for football candidates one hot day last September. The prospects for the season looked good.

The Blue Devil gridiron warriors lived up to all expectations—that is, until the fourth game. A heavily mounting toll of injuries made the road very bumpy for the next few weeks. During this mid-season slump, Hopewell lost to Thomas Jefferson, Petersburg, and John Marshall. After a tie with Hampton, the Devils hit the comeback trail, ending the season with victories over Danville and Alexandria.

While not spectacular, the 1941 record is certainly nothing to weep about. The smallest Class A school in the state, Hopewell was honored by having three players selected for the All-State squad. Albert Nemetz, tackle, received honorable mention; Charles Talbot qualified for third team end, and Douglas Pritchard, quarterback, made the second team.

On November 15 in Alexandria, eight Blue Devils played their final game under the Blue and Gold—Neal Hobart, Albert Nemetz, Charles Talbot, Douglas Pritchard, Charles Phelps, Edward Polick, Jeffrey Brodgon, and Alex Rouse.

Boys' Basketball . . .

With only three lettermen—Talbot, Hobart, and Pritchard—the 1940-41 basketball team was small and inexperienced, but plenty willing to learn. After a slow start, the determined Devils ascended from the nether regions to tie for second place in the Central District League. Near the end of the season Hopewell's cagy cagemen achieved power and glory by a popularly unexpected 42-35 victory over John Marshall. This event spelled "finis" to the Justices' fourteen-game winning streak and won for Hopewell the distinction of being the only central District team to defeat these powerful opponents.

Although this year's team did not compile as impressive a record as previous combines, the Parsonmen at least proved themselves a match for all opponents—Hopewell totalling 533 points to her opponents' 533 points. At the end of the season Coach Parson rated this team one of his best, a team which during the season showed as much improvement and as fine a spirit as any group he has ever coached.

Doug Pritchard this year made the All-Central District team.

The 1941 lettermen who will be shooting for goals on other courts next year include Talbot, Hobart, Pritchard, Lescure, Rouse, and Brogdon.

Undefeated! This is the girls' basketball record for the 1940-41 season. Under the able direction of Coach Polly Daniel Temple, the Blue Devilettes attained such cooperation and perfect teamwork as comes only after hours of concentrated practice and thorough preparation.

Scoring honors for the season went to "Skinner" Dale, who shot 119 points out of the season's total of 216.

Baseball . . .

With only three lettermen as a nucleus for his 1941 baseball team, Coach Parson had to build this spring's team from pretty green timber. The graduation and promotion to big league baseball of last year's "Ace" Keenan left Knox Morris as the Number One hurler. Jeff Brogdon on first base and Ray Dudley in right field completed the roster of lettermen who led the Blue Devils this season.

Hopewell's record on the diamond is as good to look at as any in Virginia. The Devils have lost only 16 games in the past five years.

RESUMÉ

Losing only one game during the entire 1940 season, the girls' softball team chalked up a most satisfactory record. After once defeating the Midway team, the Devilettes dropped the last game of the season to these opponents. The Hopewell girls won two games each from Disputanta, Varina, Petersburg, and Dinwiddie.

Track . . . .

Track season this season was greeted enthusiastically by a large number of hopefuls. There were only three lettermen among the 1941 candidates, and this number was soon reduced to two—Walter George and Alex Rouse—Dick Oliver being hampered by an injured foot.

Starting with largely new material, Coach Beckwith spent an active spring putting his thin clads through the paces, trying to develop some performers to replace the outstanding track men who were graduated last year.

RESUMÉ

Although tennis is in the category of minor sports, the 1940 team received good support and completed a successful season. Beginning with two lettermen, Coach Charles Smith built a team that was runner-up in the Central District.

With Hyman Marks and Bob Oliver as hold-overs, the 1940 team won two matches each from John Marshall and St. Christopher, and one from Thomas Jefferson. The Hopewell netmen lost to Petersburg twice and Thomas Jefferson once.

This year Coach Charles Guthrie took the helm and developed his team around Marks and Lescure. The 1941 team was without the services of Bob Oliver, Doug Pritchard, Grayson Nickell, and Jim Phipps, all lettermen of last season.

IN APPRECIATION

Before writing "Finis" to this volume, we wish to voice our heartfelt thanks to those people whose work behind the scenes has been invaluable to us in compiling this book.

To Mr. J. E. Runnels and the fine craftsmen of The McClure Company, we are grateful for their hospitality, patience, and eager willingness to advise and instruct us in technical matters.

To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minardi of White's Studio, we are indebted for their friendly co-operation and the unreserved application of their art and skill in making our senior portraits.

To Mr. Leo Schwartz and Mr. William Lum, we are grateful for their fine service and helpful suggestions in group photography.

We also wish to say "Thanks" to the entire student body and faculty of Hopewell High School for that loyal support and enthusiasm without which no school activity could be successful.
